Private Villa Escape

Exclusive Escapes

Villa Saranda is a lovely private villa set in the peaceful retreat of Sögüt. Sögüt itself is a rural hamlet spread over two bays and the hillside. The local çay (tea) gardens and small selection of restaurants serving excellent local fare provide the opportunity for guests to see real Turkish life. Beyond, the unspoilt villages of the Bozburun and Datça peninsulas await your exploration.

The villa enjoys the most picturesque rural hilltop location together with truly stunning views.

As Villa Saranda sits literally on a hill top, the house and its various terraces are not overlooked at all, providing absolute privacy. Your uninterrupted views scan across some local village houses below and then on to the glorious sea beyond.

The villa is the private house of Verda and Ruchan, who previous guests will remember from the Dionysos. They live close by and are always on hand to ensure that all is well with the villa and their guests – which goes a long way to explaining the remarkable feedback we receive from guests each year!

The Sögüt Complimentary Fishing Boat Private Cruise Sunday to Friday (subject to availability)

We are delighted to offer this complimentary private sailing for each of our villas in Sögüt and Selimye each week of your stay. A long, lazy day at sea is spent in the company of Captain Mutlu and his charming wife exploring the inlets of the peninsula from Sögüt. A delicious lunch of barbecued fish is provided with soft drinks. Other drinks may be bought onboard (paid for locally).

The Site of Loryma – The historic site of Loryma is located in a beautiful bay which is accessible only by sea. The day involves exploring further afield and for this reason a charge is made for this itinerary which is payable locally to Captain Mutlu.

The rate is 200-250TL (dependent on fuel costs at the time of sailing). Should you choose this alternative simply inform Verda, your Exclusive Assistant in situ.

Please note that for logistical reasons the cruises may occasionally be unable to depart. Though we shall endeavour to provide a replacement day we are unable to guarantee one. In this case the complimentary cruises have no monetary value.
